13 Plaintiff objects because Defense's statement is untrue in paragraph 13. Plaintiff never did what Defense accuses Plaintiff of. Go to Exhibit 4. Please refer to the deposition transcript for a full and accurate description with respect to paragraph 13. (page14 Plaintiff objects to the slanted untrue characterization and refers to Exhibit 4 that refers to the event, the counseling memo, teacher's contract Article Twenty one- Due process – Counseling Memo. Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization and refers to the deposition transcript for a full and accurate description with respect to paragraph 15.

15 Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. Exhibit E which Defense Attorney has included is the OSI report which Plaintiff received a year and a half while waiting in a reassignment center in Flushing, Queens. April 6, 2009, <sup>6</sup> is not the letter Plaintiff left for Ms. Karleen Comrie, Assistant Principal on Friday, January 11, 2009 in her mail box. See Exhibit 5, the letter Plaintiff wrote to Ms. Comrie about the events of Friday, January 11, 2009 in class 808 . The OSI report that the Defense has given in her Exhibit E is not the document Plaintiff sent Ms. Comrie.

On February 5, Plaintiff was sent to a reassignment center after being away at jury duty and out sick, see Exhibit 6. When Plaintiff came back from jury duty on February 5, 2008, she was told that there were charges against her. Plaintiff did not understand what was going on. This was the first time she was informed of this. It was not explained what the details of the charges were. Plaintiff was removed from the school I.S. 109 that same day. Plaintiff sat in a Queens Reassignment Center (called Rubber Rooms) from February 5, 2008 to May 27, 2009, for a year and half until Plaintiff was informed that she was simply being discontinued. Plaintiff had no prior criminal record, no prior allegations against her, no prior unsatisfactory ratings, and despite having done outstanding work as a drama teacher. Exhibit 7 Ratings. DOE has her personal file so her other satisfactory ratings are with them for the four years she taught at other schools before coming to I.S. 109. Plaintiff also has an extensive theatre background with educational theatre and professional theatre. See Exhibit 8. The school has kept her props, costumes, books, small set pieces that she paid for so that the student could have an enrich theatre program. Yet, Plaintiff was treated like a criminal and did not understand the nature of what was going on and the allegations of Verbal Abuse/Corporal Punishment. Plaintiff received no due process. She found out on April 6, 2009 the details of the false charges brought against her at a meeting with her Principal and a union representative. This was not a hearing. Plaintiff had been cursed out while trying to give an exam. Class 808 on January 11, 2009. Class 808 had been very difficult class for Plaintiff. See Exhibit 9 Lenon Murray (pages EEOC 0340 through EEOC0342)
Plaintiff was never given help with this difficult class even though she requested it. She later did not receive due process in this matter. On April 6, 2009, she was only given part of the OSI report. The section was OS1001 through OS1010 as part of the investigation, see Exhibit 10.

In Exhibit 10 Os11039 Through OS1052 Read Plaintiff 's rebuttal to OSI report See Exhibit 11. Plaintiff was finally given letters from the investigation from students in class 808 in February 2013 in the discovery process after repeatedly requesting them and being denied. This goes against procedural policy to receive the witness letters so late.. See Exhibit 12 A-421 (VIII). Plaintiff never got a chance to view witness statements at the time and to question them which is standard. Plaintiff is given nothing. Plaintiff does not even know who the accusers are because the names are crossed out. It is not really clear how and when the investigation occurred. Plaintiff does not even know if the students spoke to each other before being interviewed which is against procedure.

- 16 Plaintiff is not clear how the investigation occurred or who told who to investigate it. Plaintiff knows that procedure was not followed in her case
- 17 Plaintiff is not aware of what actually happened during the investigation and which student made which statements. Names have been crossed out in black marker. Plaintiff never got a chance to question the accusers or received any kind of due process in this matter. Nor did Plaintiff know or understand what she was allegedly being accused of. Plaintiff does not curse. That is something she does not do and it is out of character for Plaintiff. Plaintiff did not make any kind of inappropriate comments to students. In Exhibit 10, one of the statements that was mentioned was, that Plaintiff called a student a bum and said she has five houses. That is something Plaintiff would never say. Plaintiff also owns no homes or property. As far as shaking her breast, that is something Plaintiff would never do. Plaintiff also had a mastectomy from breast cancer which makes it impossible to physically shake. See Exhibit 13 for letter from Sloan Kettering. See Exhibit 11 for Rebuttal.
- 18 Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. Plaintiff did not coheres any student and say any of the things that were said. . Please look at rebuttal. See exhibit 11, rebuttal and Exhibit 9, EEOC0340 through EEOC0342 .

19 Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. Plaintiff did not do any of what she is accused of doing. Plaintiff tried to give an exam to the Class 808 and got cursed out. See and Exhibit 11.
See Exhibit 1 EEOC0085 - to - EEOC0091

20 Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization because plaintiff was away at Jury Duty and came back February 5, 2013. See Exhibit 6 there when these events occurred. She was away on jury duty. Plaintiff returned to the school on February 5, 2008 and was told to report to a reassignment center. For details, please read deposition transcript for a full and accurate description with respect to paragraph 20.

21 Plaintiff objects. Plaintiff was sick that day. Plaintiff did not return to school till February 5, 2008 from Jury Duty. See Exhibit 6.

22 *Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. On February 5, 2009, Plaintiff received a copy of a one page OSI sheet. However, there were no clear details what the circumstances were behind the investigation and what this all meant. It only mentioned verbal abuse and corporal punishment. Plaintiff did not know what this was about. See Exhibit 6 (EEOC0340 through EEOCO342) When she asked, she was told they could not say anything. It was now out of their hands. Plaintiff did not sign any document because she did not understand what this was all about. When she arrived at I.S. 109 in the morning plaintiff did get a notice that she would be going to a reassignment center. . But it was not explained to Plaintiff what it was and how long she would be there and what the process was. never received a notice for January 31, 2008 and February 2, 2008 notices of the OSI investigation. She did receive notice of her transfer to that day Reassignment Center. For detail information, please read deposition transcript. Ex 6A (Rubber Room)

23 Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. Plaintiff received pay but did not receive after school pay. She lost her job at Queens Theater in the Park because of
See Exhibit 14.

24 Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. The way it written in the OSI report , is not how it actually occurred. Please see Exhibit 8 (EEOC0340 through EEOCO342) Please also read Exhibit 3, EEOC0076 through EEOC0084. I also was not there when questions were being asked by witnesses, I was on Jury Duty. For detail information, please read deposition transcript.

25 Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. Plaintiff was not there when any of this occurred if it actually occurred the way they said it did .

26 *Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. Plaintiff would never say these things. Plaintiff has always been about encouraging youth. See Exhibit 8 with productions and theatre projects Plaintiff has worked on. Defense fails to mention that student A and student B are best friends as they call themselves. Please read rebuttal Exhibit 11 with OS I and witness statements Exhibit 10. Plaintiff objects to the slanted untrue characterization. Plaintiff was not there when OSI investigation occurred. Plaintiff is not clear who the students are by the way they are listed. Plaintiff did not say any of the things OSI claims she said. For detail information, please read deposition transcript.

27 Plaintiff objects to the untrue statement. Plaintiff was not there when OSI investigation occurred.

28 Plaintiff objects to the untrue statement. See Exhibit 11 Rebuttal Student A and B are best friends. This is something Plaintiff never said.

29 Plaintiff objects to the untrue statement. Plaintiff never cursed. Plaintiff does not even know who the students are from the way they have been identified. This goes against the investigative process of DOE knowing your accuser. See Exhibit 12 rebuttal of production of documents. For other detailed information, please read deposition transcript. The Plaintiff had no due process.

30 Plaintiff objects to the untrue statement. Plaintiff never said such statements. See Exhibit Rebuttal 11.

31 This something Plaintiff can not do and would never do. She had a mastectomy. Plaintiff does not even know who the students are from the way they have been identified. This goes against the investigative process of DOE knowing your accuser.

32 Plaintiff was interviewed by Investigator Smalls at 65 Court Street. He asked Plaintiff a lot of questions. The investigator did not explain the situation. He just asked questions. Plaintiff never shook her breast. Plaintiff had a mastectomy. The action is something she would never do.

For other detailed information, please read deposition transcript and for fuller description with respect to paragraph 31. See Exhibit 1

33 Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. Plaintiff never did the things the defense is accusing her of. It is not in her character. It is something she would never do. See Exhibit 8

34 Plaintiff never cohersed any student. Plaintiff was trying to give a drama exam to a difficult class who told her on more than one occasion they would get her fired. They were very angry that a few of their classmates had gotten superintendent suspensions for disrespectful behavior. It is not clear at all how anything was substantiated when Plaintiff does not even know the identity of the accusers. Plaintiff tried to give an exam and got cursed out. See Exhibit 9

35 Plaintiff objects because she was not guilty of what she was accused of doing and she did not find out till May April 6, 2009. For other detailed information, please read deposition transcript for a full description with respect to paragraph 34.

36 Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. Plaintiff met with Principal Pate with her union representative on April 6, 2009. Plaintiff had no due process. For other detailed information, please read deposition transcript with respect to paragraph 35.

37 Plaintiff objects to the slanted characterization. Plaintiff received a Unsatisfactory rating from Principal Pate Alexander on April 23 with no due process. Plaintiff received her first unsatisfactory rating as a teacher. For other detailed information, please read deposition transcript with respect to paragraph 38.

38 Principal Pate took Plaintiff's career away from her with no due process. This is the kind of thing
→ to other teachers. (older, offness). Plaintiff was out that happen before. Exhibit 15.
~~2008/09 she explained to Pate she had doctor appointments see exhibits 15~~

39 Plaintiff never received 30 days notice from Superintendent Lenon Murray that is why in October Plaintiff was paid a small settlement because she was not given her back pay and was discontinued without 30 days notice. See exhibit 17 This is what the first Article 78 was about.

40 On the close of May 27, 2009 that is when I found out I was terminated. Now due process. See <sup>(pages 25-27) and exhibit 9</sup> exhibit 18 and please read deposition transcript and for a fuller description with respect to paragraph <sup>40</sup> 19
